Loaded Liam's new house 2

When Loaded Liam bought a new house recently, he asked a building company to turn it into the house of his dreams.

1 The builders have now finished. What work has been done? Make sentences in the present perfect passive, using the words in the boxes.

e.g. The roof has been repaired.

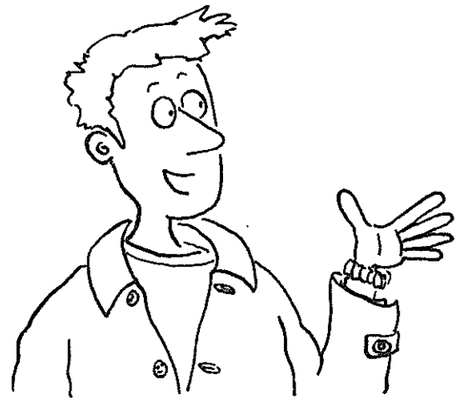
~~the roof~~ the grass the rubbish a garage flowers a tree the fence a swimming pool	~~repair~~ take away cut plant build replace cut down dig

2 Complete the conversation between Loaded Liam and his friend, Wealthy Will. Use passives of the verbs in brackets: present simple, present perfect or past simple.



Wealthy Will Have the builders finished the work on your house yet?

Loaded Liam Yes, all the building work (1 finish) ...has been finished... and the garden is looking great.

Wealthy Will What (2 do) ..... in the garden?

Loaded Liam There are some lovely flowers there now, and the tree that was growing too close to the house (3 cut down) ..... .

Wealthy Will And what about the swimming pool?

Loaded Liam The tiles (4 stick on) ..... last week, so it's finally ready for people to swim in it.

Wealthy Will (5 it / use) ..... yet?

Loaded Liam Not yet. Why don't you come round for a swim this afternoon?

Wealthy Will I'd love to. Thanks. And can I see your new garage, too?

Loaded Liam Yes, but you can't park your car in it. My Porsche (6 always / keep) ..... in there.

3 And your house / school / town? What changes have been made recently? Write four sentences in the present perfect passive.
